 261 Records documenting the creation and implementation of the Program. The DCAS is a series of assessments designed to measure what Delaware's students know and are able to do at each grade level in reading, mathematics, science, and social studies. It replaced the Delaware State Testing Program (RG 8005-016-101) in 2010.
 270 The files include planning meeting records, training records, manuals, status meeting reports, bias evaluation records, standards setting meeting records, and test coordinator training materials.
