261 Audio recordings of committee meetings. The committee was formed in 1983 as part of the legal process to desegregate New Castle County public schools. Members represented the State Board of Education, the plaintiffs in the case, and the four school districts. Their purpose was to review, evaluate, and advise on the progress of the desegregation plan by identifying positive results as well as concerns to be addressed.
270 Audio tapes note date of meetings. Subjects discussed include parental involvement, the Phoenix program, school budgets and resources, teacher and administrator qualifications, recruitment and placement of minority staff, special education student placement, the availability of programs for students, student achievement monitoring and equal education for all children.
