 261 Record books maintained by the treasurer/secretary of the United School District Number 2, 100, 103, and 104, contemporarily called the South Milford Public School.
 270 These volumes contain both a record of disbursements and receipts (1888-1907) as well as minutes from the annual stated meetings and school board meetings of the district. The financial records show the names of the tax collector and treasurer, amount of taxes collected, and dates, reason, and amounts of disbursements and receipts. The first volume has a list of delinquent taxpayers (1889-1893) which notes the date, name of taxpayer, and amount owed.

The minutes for the annual stated meetings (1888-1898) show the date and place of the meeting, names of the chairman and secretary, persons named as auditors, total amounts received and spent for the year, balance remaining, amount due from the tax collector, amount of taxes to be raised for the next year, commissioners elected, number of teachers and the amounts paid to them, number of male and female students, time of the meeting, and signatures of the chairman and secretary. The school board meeting minutes (1889-1893) show the date and place of the meeting, members present, business discussed, and the signature of the secretary. Subjects include a building addition, taxes received, teachers appointed, salaries, appointment of committee members, bills allowed, and student rules and regulations.
