261 Primarily school registers from Pleasant Valley School, District # 92.
It was located at the corner of Old Baltimore Pike and Pleasant Valley Road, near Newark.
270 The school registers, 1896-1923, record school attendance and information about the students. Information in the registers show the school district number, county, beginning and ending dates of records, student number, name of student, age, days attended, number of days attended during the month, the grade level of the student, remarks and signature of teacher, total daily attendance, average daily attendance for month, and average age. Beginning in 1920 the registers may include a summary of registration attendance and promotion for each student, textbooks that were used for each grade, a list of textbooks on hand, the daily class schedule and the student's birth date. The 1922-1923 register also includes the name of a parent or guardian. Other records include an attendance record for 1924-1925, a copy of the compulsory school law, photocopies of school photographs, newspaper clippings, and a "Record of Textbooks Loaned to Students".
