

000 9015
001 043
002 001
003
004
005 Private Photograph Collections
006 Marian Coker Collection
140 Photographs
200 2013
210 2017
220 2013, 2016, 2017
240 0.03 cf.
241 1 @ 0.19 box
261 Photographs taken by Archives staff member Marian Coker of the 2013 visit by the King and Queen of Sweden, Governor Jack Markell signing the legislation recognizing the Lenape Indian Tribe of Delaware as an American Indian tribe, and POW/MIA Parkway Opening Ceremony.
270 The 2013 ceremony with Swedish royalty at Fort Christina Park includes photos of participating Native Americans. The 2016 bill signing by Governor Markell shows members of the Lenape Tribe, local legislators, drummers, and a Native American ceremony. The Parkway is a bypass in West Dover linking Saulsbury Road with U.
S. 13 at Rodney Village Shopping Center. The opening ceremony was held on September 15, 2017, and the photos show Delaware's congressional delegation (Chris Coons, Thomas Carper, and Lisa Blunt-Rochester), Governor Carney, Lt. Governor Bethany Hall-
Long, the ribbon cutting, and the road opening.
290
310
329
330 Arranged chronologically by date of event.
331 No index.
332
350 Digital copies, some paper copies made from digital images.
360 Good condition.
370
390 Photograph database.
420 2017;
430 Digital images at: \\dosfp01\data\DPA\Records
Services\Projects\Projects\Web page\9015-043-001 Marian Coker Collection.
990 October 24, 2017
995
rlg