261 Primarily a record of amounts paid to employees while working at a Lewes cannery. Arterbridge was a supervisor at A. F. Anderson's tomato cannery.
270 The volume shows the employee's name, date and total hours worked, and amount paid. Some entries show the amount produced and amount paid. A few pages show the number of labels applied by employees each day. There are a few entries for miscellaneous business and personal expenses. Included in the volume were a number of loose papers, mostly correspondence to Arterbridge relating to labeling and shipments of canned tomatoes.
290 Time Book, J. T. Arterbridge, Lewes, Del. Sept. 23, 1920. Ledger on spine.
