000 9025
001 N01
002 079
003 000
005 Private Accounts
006 Troth, Haworth and Campion
140
141
142 Day Book
200 1866
210 1868
220
240 0.25 cubic feet
241 1 volume
261 Daily record of business transactions of Troth, Haworth and Campion, a firm in the wholesale notion business located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This volume was used as evidence in a New Castle County Court of Chancery case, during the September Term of 1873, involving James R. C. Oldham versus Robert Lewis Armstrong, the Sheriff of New Castle County, and others. The respondent was seeking a court injunction to nullify a judgement rendered by the New Castle County Superior Court in April of 1873. This firm was organized on January 1, 1866 and dissolved on January 1, 1869.
27X Shows date, name of account, transaction description, amount of transaction. Left hand margin includes unidentifiable reference.
29X On spine "City Sales, letter A, T. H. and C." on cover "In re J. R. Oldham vs R. L. Armstrong et.al. in Chancery exhibit "F" Aug. 25, 1875"
310
329

WORK STATUS	ARCHIVIST:
___needs sorting	___review for identification/ further determination
___needs unfolding	___processing
___needs foldering/reboxing	___determine origin/purpose
___other: _____	___other:
CONDITION:
___totally disorganized	FILM:
___order not apparent	___for security
___origin questionable	___destroy original
___other:_____	___other:

330 Chronological by date
331 none
332 form printed w/writing
350
360 poor; acid damage; storage damage; dirt damage
390 none
430 New Castle County Chancery Record D-2 p. 405 J. Oldham vs R. L. Armstrong.
440 Case abstract published in "Delaware Chancery Reports, Vol. V", pg. 151.
900
990 6/1/1995
995 July 31, 1996; March 24, 1997; April 20, 2018; April 23, 2018
999 Although this is court evidence from a New Castle County Court, and the case was identified, it was decided to place it under Private Accounts, as that collection was basically created from similar volumes collected over the years by each of the three court houses.
de/bh