The Kent County Mutual Insurance Company Records include approximately 27 cubic feet of original applications arranged in numerical order by policy number. Missing numbers indicate cancelled or missing policies. Cancelled applications were maintained separately and are included at the end of this series. The applications contain name of policy holder, location, description of items to be insured, value, insured value, premium, and the regulations by which the policy holders must adhere. Specifications of insured structures are frequently included. Household valuables and store goods are often enumerated. Beginning during the 1880's additional space was provided on the reverse side of the application where agents were required to sketch surrounding buildings in the risk area.

Information on the application also includes: type of construction (wood, brick, etc.), type of heating, location of the pump or well, property occupant, and uses of structures. Of particular interest is information pertaining to the history and architecture of private residences, churches, various public institutions, libraries, schools, and hospitals.
