261 The Indian River Poultry Farm was a chicken breeding farm, operated a hatchery, and sold chicks. It was located near Ocean View. These records from the Farm consist of advertising materials, stationery, and forms.
270 The advertising materials include a 1946 catalog describing their work and the breeds they produce and a 1949 booklet advertising the Indian River Cross breed. The remainders of the records are unused envelopes, order forms, receipt book, and shipping labels.
