261 Financial records maintained by Mrs. Erwin H. (Flora B.) Richter of their farm family's expenses. They lived in the Viola area.
270 Most of the volumes are Farm Family Account Books published by the United States Department of Agriculture. For each month they list the items purchased for household operations, transportation, clothing, personal expenditures, housing and furnishings, education and recreation, medical care, gifts, church, welfare, investments, and payments of note. Also included is a listing of social events the family attended each month. One volume is a record of the income and expenditures for a bungalow and a ranch house that they rented out.
