261 Collection consists of various photographs donated to the Delaware Agriculture Museum from many different donors. Collection consists of nearly 1,500 photographs.
270 This collection consists of a wide range of subjects pertaining to Delaware agriculture, livestock, and poultry. The majority of the photographs show people and farmers at work doing their jobs either on a farm, orchard, or ranches. Also included are photos of horse racing, University of Delaware Substation, 4-H events, churches, hunters, and canning factories. The collection has a wide range of locations throughout Delaware including all three counties. Views of State Fair show animals, agriculture and dairy tours are included as well.
