261 Record of school attendance at Ebenezer School, School District 28, later called the Clinton School. It was located in the northwest corner of Christiana Hundred near the Pennsylvania border.
270 The book shows the names of the students and the days they attended.
Girls were listed separately from the boys. The teachers' names are also given. Some teachers listed the names of visitors to the school, average daily attendance, number of females and males, number of days taught days each student attended, a conduct rating, and a progress rating.
