261 McKee graduated from the two year teaching program at the Wilmington Institute, now called Wesley College, and received a teaching certificate in 1909. These records are the test questions for the certificate and the certificate she was issued.
270 The test questions were on the following subjects: grammar, school management, nature study, geography, spelling, methods of teaching, physiology and hygiene, American history, reading, arithmetic, writing, history, drawing, constitution of the United States and Delaware, The teaching certificate shows her grades in various subjects, date of certificate, and signature of the Kent County Superintendent.
