261 The American Institute of Banking was created to provide bank employees with an educational program to learn more about the banking industry and advance their careers in banking. The Kent County chapter was formed in 1962 and the Scrapbook documents the organizations formative years.
270 In the Scrapbook are photographs of chapter officers, instructors, class scenes, and events. Also present is correspondence, newspaper clippings, chapter stationary, event programs, and meeting notices. The 1985 record is a program for the twenty-third annual banquet. Kent County Chapter, A.I.B., 1962-1963 on cover.
