261 Donald A. Blakey was an African American Dover resident who served as a Kent County Levy Court Commissioner (1988-2006) and State Representative (2007-2015) for the 34th District. He was President of Levy Court in 1995 and 2001. These records reflect his governmental career and interest in aviation.
270 The files include an article on African American Aviators in Delaware, 1950s-1960s; aviation related photographs and a copy of his pilot certificate; a Levy Court Resolution honoring Blakey; his Kent County and Legislative Hall identification cards; campaign literature; newspaper clippings; and a draft of his first piece of legislation. Also present are photographs of him as Levy Court President, Levy Court Commissioners, Blakey and Governor Ruth Ann Minner celebrating Black History Month, Blakey and Prothonotary Emily Morris, and others with Blakey and unidentified people.
