

000 09200
001 C02
002 000
003
004
005 Small Manuscript Collection
006 Cahall Papers
140
200 1754
210 1886
220 1811-1861
240 0.35 cf
241 26 folders in 0.47 box
261 Deeds, guardianships and business papers of the Cahall family of Mispillion Hundred.
270 The papers of the Cahall family include various records relating to the following families and individuals: Abbott, Bowman, Douglas, Donovan, Gill and Lewis, Hall, Herrington, Johnson, Livingston, Macklin, Manlove, Milby, Parsons, Primrose, Thompson, Tomlinson, Viccary, Mason D. Webb, Mary Wood, and Young.

A folder of petitions and plots related to land use and infrastructure, many of which are addressed to the Governor, Courts, or State Legislature, from 1847-1863 are found in folder 21. Also found in this collection is a 1793 account book, a farewell address from Henry Clay dated 1842, and a handwritten textbook (no date). This collection includes extensive work notes that serve as a comprehensive index.

290
310
330 Arranged alphabetically by client/family name.
331 Index by folder, numbered at item level thereunder.
332 Handwritten and typed.
350
360 Fair to good condition.
370
390
420
430 Index at front of collection. An assessment list of Milford Hundred from 1860-1861 that was originally part of this collection was moved to Kent County Assessments. There is a folder noting this in the box. Documents in the folders are numbered discretely with pencil to correspond to items on the work notes.
990 March 6, 2019
995
sbd