

000 9200
001 C22
002 001
003
004
005 Small Manuscript Collection
006 Wilson Lee Cannon Collection
140 Scrap Books
143 1817-1905
200 1881
210 1940
220
240 0.98 cubic feet
241 2 volumes, in two Reg. Flat- 17.5 boxes
261 Collected records and ephemera documenting the life of Wilson Lee Cannon of Dover, Delaware and his family.
270 One volume (1905) contains obituaries and news articles from various sources noting the death of Wilson L. Cannon, letters of sympathy from many prominent Delawareans and other friends and colleagues at the time and also some receipts for expenditures for related funerary cost. The other volume (1881-1940) contains various news clippings and articles of the times, political materials and invitations and programs to many annual, social or commemorative events. For many of these events, Cannon family members were active participants in the programs.

290

310

329 WORK STATUS:

- needs sorting
- needs unfolding
- needs foldering/reboxing
- other:

ARCHIVIST:

- review for identification/needs further identification
- needs processing
- determine origin/purpose
- xx other: Review for better understanding

CONDITION:

- totally disorganized
- order not apparent
- origin questionable
- other:

330

331 None.

332 Handwritten; printed

350

360 Acidic; torn and chipped edges; documents affixed to very acidic pages; brittle

370 None.
390 None.
420 Found among unworked papers. Copy of a within accession letter.
Material donated by a Robert B. Cannon of Long Island, New York in 1971.
430 Indications are the second volume may have belonged to the son, Wilson
Lee Cannon, Jr. who lived later in the New York City area. Many of the event programs included the menu of the items to be served.
900
990 October 12, 2017
995 October 12, 2017; December 21, 2017
999
BHH