261 Daily diary of Mary C. Dwight of Smyrna, Delaware, who resided with her brother, Dr. Edward S. Dwight.
270 A physician's daily memorandum book from 1900 was used for the 1906 recordings. Recorded were weather observations, social and religious functions and activities and the medical conditions of local inhabitants. This also included deaths. Mary and her brother, Edward, were both born in New Haven, Connecticut. Mary was not married and lived with her brother in Smyrna, Delaware. She died in 1941 and was buried in New Haven, Connecticut. Printed on each page of the volume, under the day, was a different medical case study.
290 "Physician's Daily Memorandum, 1900". The diarist modified the year to read "1906".
