261 The Delaware Mothers Committee was appointed by Governor Elbert N. Carvel in 1950 to name a state Mother of the Year. In 1980 the Committee became the Delaware Association of American Mothers. The scrapbooks document the annual selection of Delaware's Mother of the Year by the organization.

270 Records consist of newspaper clippings, photographs, correspondence, articles, programs, poems, obituaries, biographical information, meeting minutes, newsletters, and announcements. Several politically prominent women have been award winners: Ruth Ann Minner, Harriett Smith Windsor, Mary Jornlin Theisen, Esther Frear, Margaret O'Neil, and Vera Davis. Because the governor is usually involved in making the award, photographs of Governors Carvel, Boggs, Tribbitt, du Pont, Castle, Carper, Minner, and Markell are present.
