261 Correspondence, military records, and school papers of Frank Hall Davis Jr.
270 Frank Hall Davis Jr. was the son of Frank Hall Davis and Vera Davis. A major portion of his papers consists of letters sent home and to pen pals on his business travels. Most of the letters deal with his research at various libraries around the world. Also included is his report card from Dover Public Schools for the 1933-1934 & 1935-1936 school year and his Georgetown University transcript. Frank Hall Davis Jr. served in WWII and his Report of Physical Examination for the War Department and papers regarding Veterans Training in Foreign Institutions can be found in this collection. His life insurance paperwork and his passport detailing his travels from 1948 to 1951 can also be found in this series.
