

000 9200
001 D22
002 011
003
004
005 Small Manuscripts Collection
006 Davis Family Collection
140 General Records
200 1807
210 1962
220
240 0.59 cubic feet
241 2 @.47 box; 2 folders in a 0.7 box
261 General publications and documents collected by the Davis family.
270 Publications include "Plans for a Modern Hotel in Dover," "A Guide to Historic Fort Delaware," "Argument in opposition to Henry A. Dupont's claim to the office of U.S. Senator for the State of Delaware," church music, "Delaware Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children petition," "Delaware Taxation: A Theory Thereon from Isaac Hinckley to Josiah T. Comegys," "Dollars for Freedom" Republican National Finance Committee News, electric rates and rules for the City of Dover, Frank R. Zebly Christmas card with illustration of the Nanticoke Indian School, Lincoln Day Dinner program, "Marriage Laws of the State of Delaware," "New Castle and Frenchtown Railroad History," poems,
"Republican Party Instruction for Voters," "Republican Party Rules,"
"Rules and Regulations of the Bar Association of Kent County," "Rules of the Democratic Party," "Sacrificing to Build Holy Cross Church," "Storm" by the Delaware Coast Press, Rehoboth Beach, Delaware on the 1962 storm, and World War I Victory Loan song lyrics. Also present are bonds and deeds, documents related to the DuPont family, Edward Addicks correspondence and newspaper clippings, Edward Ridgely letters, letter from James A. Bayard to William Dulaney stating his opinion on moving slaves into the state, Official Ballot of Representative District
Number 5, List of Colored Voters of Second Election District of the 5th Representative District, and a report on the investigation of the First National Bank in Dover.

290
310
329
330 Arranged alphabetically by folder heading.
331 No index
332 Handwritten; typed
350
360 Good-Fair condition. Acid, dirt, and storage damage.
370
390
420 2015074
430
990 July 24, 2015
995
clg