261 Primarily family history information compiled on the Denney and related families. The Denney's were a prominent Smyrna area family.
270 The records consist of Bible records, vital statistical lists, ancestry charts, copies of wills and deeds, biographies, research notes, obituaries, newspaper clippings, wedding and birth announcements, invitations, family histories, a list of Denney members with military service, and histories of Denney's mill and the Lindens, the family home in Smyrna. The families represented include the Denney, Blackiston, Cummins, Raymond, Holding, and Stout families. Other records of interest include a plot of the mill property, a 1919 report on the health and sanitary conditions in Smyrna, and a hundred million German mark from 1923.
