261 Programs, publications, and records collected by Doris Frazier during her teaching career.
270 The collection contains programs, newspaper clippings, booklets, pamphlets, yearbooks, and a plot plan and survey of the Magnolia School. These documents come from the Caesar Rodney, J. Ralph McIlvaine, and Magnolia Public Schools. Many programs and pamphlets relate to commencement ceremonies, dedications, inductions, baccalaureates, invitations, and student handbooks involved with student life. Most of the student activities they relate to involve graduation, prom, band, choir, Glee club, orchestra, and sports such as football. The collection also includes newspapers from Caesar Rodney High School and clippings the establishment of the J. Ralph McIlvaine Elementary School. A few programs relate to the University of Delaware, Bicentennial dedication in Magnolia, and a 250th anniversary celebration of Dover.
