

000 9200
001 G07
002 001
003
004
005 Small Manuscripts Collection
006
140 Polde Gosnik Collection
200 2007
210 2009
220
240 0.1 cf.
241 1 @ 0.19 box
261 Gosnik was a Slovenian who was conscripted into the German army during World War II, captured by the Allies, and spent time as a prisoner of war at Fort DuPont. The book and compact disc contain his remembrances and memoirs.
270 The book, Polde Gosnik - P.O.W. was written by his daughter, Irena Trsinar. It is illustrated, including photos from the Delaware Public Archives, and is written in Slovenian. The cd has copies of some of the photos used in the book, an Mp3 audio file of his interview on Radio Fireside, Ljubljana, Slovenia, and an English translation of the program.
290
310
329 WORK STATUS:
330
331 No index.
332 Printed, typed.
350
360 Good condition.
370 The National Museum of Contemporary History must be credited if the interview is used.
390
420 2011102;
430
990 July 6, 2011
995
rlg