261 This collection consists of mostly correspondences and accounts of the Janvier family of New Castle County.
270 A part of a prominent family for over a century, Thomas and William B. Janvier were well known in New Castle. As cousins, they were actively involved in the affairs throughout the county. Thomas incorporated the New Castle Manufacturing Company, was successful in the transportation business, and held large tracts of land within New Castle Hundred. Of interest in the collection regarding Thomas Janvier includes his accounts, revealing his widespread involvement in his community. These accounts mark the items he bought, primarily for his manufacturing company, and the interactions he held with other merchants.

Other records detail the activities of William B. Janvier. Significant documents regarding William B. include his accounts and correspondences, illuminating his activity in selling and purchasing goods. His accounts exemplify his participation as a merchant with receipts and transactions with other manufacturers.

Of special interest are records of the Town of New Castle. These include an 1820 assessment list; rates of charges and rents of stalls at the Market House, 1824 and 1825; and town commissioner election results, 1816 and 1827. Also included in the collection is a broadside for stoneware and earthenware for sale by Smyth and Hilles in Wilmington, no date; probate records for the estate of Samuel Smith, 1832-1833; and "Dr. Radway's Almanac for 1871 and Guide to Health."
