261 The Ledger shows financial accounts and transactions of various individuals, as well as business agreements made between Manlove Hayes and various parties.
270 The exterior of the Ledger features inscriptions of the names of various Hayes Family members including "Polk Hayes" (Charles), "M. Hayes", and "E[lliza] Hayes." Records detailing individual financial accounts and transactions are arranged according to person and thereunder chronologically. Names repeatedly found in the Ledger include Anthony Blackiston, Gouverneur Emerson, Henry Rodney, George Laws, and Thomas Bircher. The Ledger also provides records of hired worker agreements made between Manlove Hayes and various parties. A record detailing Kent County voting totals during the 1827 election is found towards the back of the Ledger. Offices listed include the United States representative and senator, state senators and representatives, sheriffs, coroners, and Levy Court commissioners. Voting totals are tallied for each Kent Country Hundred: Duck Creek, Little Creek, Dover, Murderkill, and Mispillion. A final aggregate column tallying votes from each hundred is also included.
290 Volume partially labeled "Led__" on binding; label is red with gold print.
