261 Sketches, plots, measurements, and notes made by Haddaway, an engineer in Wyoming, Delaware.
270 Haddaway was the Kent County Road Engineer in 1927 and many of the early entries are sketches and various measurements of bridges in the county. These bridges include Blanchard's, McKee's, Dorry Harrington, Meyer Cahall, Vernon, Willow Grove Church, Willow Grove School, Fox Hall Road, Jackson's Ditch, Fork Branch, Edward's Farm, John Moore Farm, State College, Fisher, and Gum Island. The book also contains notes on a Wyoming road project, a pipe laying project in Greenwood, a plot of the county almshouse property, a Burrsville-Big Pine road project, a Greenwood School pavement project, a White's Church - Greely Brown road project, a Wyoming drainage survey, a plot of the proposed Kent County Jail (Morris Correctional) property, and a Bridgeville pavement project.

He also has a number of survey notes, metes and bounds, and plots. Surveys were done for the Lebanon Causeway, Samuel Fox's marshland in Blackbird Hundred, the Joseph Harrison property in North Murderkill Hundred, Bee Tozour's land in Kitts Hummock, a lot for Clayton Town Commissioners, Julia E. Seward property in Wyoming, Avery Draper's Hopewell and Turkey Point tracts in North Murderkill Hundred, the L. R. Wood property along the Pearson's Corner to Hartley road, Charles P. Fink's farm tract near Willow Grove, Charles I. DuPont's Woodland Tract near Willow Grove, Christian A. Jensen's land on Dover's Silver Lake, the Eagle Nest tract in Blackbird Hundred, Lavinia Gibbs' lot in Wyoming, Washington Avenue and Peach Alley in Clayton, the sub-division of Nellie S. Moore's property on Elm Terrace Extension in Dover, and DuPont Farms in West Dover Hundred.
