261 Research records compiled by James Bice Jackson (1914-2003) for various research projects, especially for his book on the Golden Fleece Tavern, the site of the 1787 ratification of the United States Constitution.
270 Subjects include William Berry, Bill of Rights, Delaware banking history, Captain John Durborough, Golden Fleece Tavern, Charles Hillyard, 300th anniversary of Kent County courts, original Kent County land grants, Kent General Hospital, Henry and John Lockwood, Caesar and Thomas Rodney, St. Jones Historical Park, Second Delaware Regiment, and Richard Wood. One box contains his research files on the Golden Fleece Tavern. There are files on the Battell family, other taverns on The Green, John Dickinson, illustrations, notices in newspapers, the historical plaque, history of the site, tavern signs, tavern laws, and colonial taverns. The files on Kent County land grants include many copies of documents and a card file index. The card file indexes a map which we did not receive.
