261 Primarily correspondence between Robert H. Moor Jr., a Civil War soldier and Leipsic native, and family and friends. Also included in this collection are Moor's discharge papers, additional family correspondence, and genealogical information for the Jones-Naudain-Moor family.
270 This collection contains correspondence (ca. 1862-1864) to and from Robert H. Moor Jr., Company K of the 20th Regiment, Pennsylvania Infantry Militia, discussing Civil War battles, politics and life at home. Moor was stationed in Pennsylvania, often near the Susquehanna River. His discharge papers suggest he was released from service on August 1, 1863.

Genealogical information for the Jones-Naudain-Moor families is included in this collection, along with research notes and a pedigree chart (no date) beginning with the marriage of Marjorie Naudain Winner to Freeman Champney on September 2, 1931. Also included is an obituary for Daniel W. Corbit, 1922, and Encyclopedia of Delaware entries of family members from 1882.

There is further family correspondence in this collection dating before and after the Civil War (ca. 1836-1870). Other records include a doctor's bill (1857), letters discussing legal matters (1876), and ephemera including bookmarks, ribbons, programs, and poems.
