261 Photograph albums compiled by the various branches of the Marshall family, a prominent Milford family.
270 The earliest album is an album of identified carte-de-visites collected by Rosa Mathewson, 1865-ca. 1890. Her family emigrated from Ireland to Montreal, Canada, and most are portraits of family living in Montreal, many with death dates and ages. An album from about the 1880's shows views of Slaughter Beach and the Marshall cottage there. There is an album of Marshall and Horton family photos, ca. 1880-2004; one by William Marshall, Jr., ca. 1906-1917; an album compiled by Ruth Heisler Marshall, ca. 1910s; and an album by Roseanna Mable Bowser Marshall, 1930-1968. An album of photos, records, and ephemera document the life of Samuel M. D. Marshall, Jr., 1925-1959, 1981.

These albums consist of typical family photos. Subjects include portraits of family and friends; family house and cars; family outings;
Slaughter Beach; Milford; William Marshall's service with the Delaware National Guard, 1908-1917; the veterans camp at Gettysburg, 1913; trips to New Orleans, Canada, Yellowstone National Park, Colorado, and West Virginia; local African-Americans; and Samuel Marshall's military service in World War II and Korea.
