261 Audio recordings by Milford radio station WKSB relating to the attempt to integrate Milford High School and the rallies held by Bryant W.
Bowles to prevent desegregation.
270 The tapes begin on September 20, 1954, with a citizens meeting at Milford High School. Other recordings include a Milford Board of Education meeting (September 23, 1954), a Bryant W. Bowles rally at Lincoln (September 30, 1954), a Bowles rally at the Harrington Airport (September 26, 1954), a National Association for the Advancement of White People (NAAWP) meeting at Lincoln (September 30, 1954), NAAWP meeting (October 10, 1954), Milford City Council special meeting to discuss an article published in Redbook magazine (March 25, 1955), segregationist candidates for the Milford School Board election (May 13, 1955), and a radio address by Bowles endorsing segregationist candidates for Milford School Board (May 13, 1955). There is a typed transcript for the radio address. There are nine reel-to-reel original tapes and corresponding copies on compact disk and three preservation tapes.
