261 Record of the meetings of the Washington Camp Number 10, Patriotic Order Sons of America, a patriotic and nativist national organization in Magnolia. The Patriotic Order provided unemployment insurance and death benefits for its members.
270 The book is divided into two sections: a Roll of Officers and the minutes. The Roll of Officers lists the names of all office holders and the dates they attended each meeting. The minutes show the bills allowed and ordered to be paid, the balance at the close of the last meeting, dues and initiations collected, orders paid, the total balance, and the signatures of the president and the secretary. Also shown are new members added, members unable to work and benefits paid to them, members missing at meetings, members dropped from the Camp for nonpayment of dues, election results, celebrations, committee reports, and the death of members.
