261 While working at Dover radio station WKEN, Satterfield conducted a number of interviews with Ned Heite, the Bureau Chief of the Delaware State Archives, five Delaware governors, and Senator Joseph Biden. Audio recordings of these interviews comprise the collection.
270 Eight of the recordings are of Ned Heite doing a series of short history programs called "Notes from the Archives", one recording by WKEN of the 1983 State of the State address, one recording of Senator Biden on the Open Mic program referencing the Fair Tax Act legislation, and one recording of five governors being interviewed. Digital copies were created in January 2013.
