

000 9200
001 S27
002 002
003
004
005 Small Manuscripts Collection
006 Schwartz Collection
140 Photographs
200 1942
210 1976
220
240 0.19 cf.
241 1 @ 0.19 box
261 Primarily photographs of movie theaters owned by the Schwartz family, including theater promotions and construction.
270 The theaters include the Capitol Theatre in Dover; Cinema Center, Newark; Delmar Drive In Theatre; Dover Cinema at the Blue Hen Mall, Dover; Kent Drive In Theatre, near Camden; Mall Cinema, location unknown; Miller Theatre, Lewistown, Pennsylvania; Sun and Surf Cinemas, Ocean City, Maryland; Super 50 Drive In Theatre, Trappe, Maryland; and Temple Theatre, Dover. There are additional photos of a World War II bond drive event in Dover with actress Paulette Goddard and actor William Gargan, an appearance by actress Anne Miller, and a personal appearance by actor Aldo Ray. Included in the box is a folder of newspaper clippings about the various theaters and the Schwarz family.
290
310
329
330 Arranged in alphabetical order by subject heading.
331 No index.
332
350 Digital copies on DPA website.
360 Good condition. storage damage.
370
390 In-house database.
420 2014075
430 These records were retrieved from the Landmark House, SW corner of State and Division Streets, Dover. The house was formerly owned by Muriel Schwartz who sold the property to a law firm in 2014. Before renovations could take place, they needed to clear out the house and the architectural drawings and photographs were offered to DPA by a firm partner. Most of the photos were removed from vinyl pages in binders.
990 June 12, 2014
995 July 14, 2015;
rlg