261 Financial record of the S. H. Derby Company, a grower, packer, and canner of fruits and vegetables near Woodside.
270 The ledger shows the account heading and sometimes the location of the business or individual, date, reason for expenditure, amount, date of credit, reason for receipt, and amount. Many of the businesses are in New York. The 1927 entries are for "Down House" expenditures. The 1933 entries record the sale of apples to Rich and Herman. In the back of the book is a record of tree plantings. It notes what was planted, where, when, how many trees, and includes some plots.
