261 Record of the apple orders received by the S. H. Derby Company, a grower, packer, and canner of fruits and vegetables near Woodside.
270 The entries show the date, name of person ordering and their location, what was ordered, if ordered for another person and their location, and cost. At the end of the volume is a diary (1898) noting work done in the orchards or farm, weather, temperatures, harvesting asparagus, visitors, attendance at church or funerals, visit of traveling library, and the sale of produce.
