

CANNON TOMBSTONES

Photocopied 28 April 1988 from MAP
OF THE TOWN OF DOVER, KENT COUNTY,
DELAWARE published by W.B. Roe 1887

State Street lies on the west side of LAKESIDE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CEMETERY... Silver Lake to the north and east

The location of the CANNON
FAMILY TOMBSTONES is marked in red on the map.

SOURCE: Tombstone Inscriptions LAKESIDE METHODIST EPISCOPAL
CEMETERY 10 November 1984 (Recorded by Jean Coffey Row)

- WILSON LEE CANNON 28 January 1817 - 7 February 1905...The path of the just is as the shining light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.*
- ANN SCOTTEN, wife of WILSON LEE CANNON 17 April 1818 - 23 August 1859...He giveth his beloved sleep.
- ELLA CANNON, wife of DR. S. D. MARSHALL 31 October 1847 - 9 April 1929
- SAMUEL D. MARSHALL, M. D. 9 May 1840 - 29 January 1892
- MARY E. CANNON BENSON 18 August 1851 - 10 March 1935
- MARY ELIZABETH, wife of WILSON L. CANNON 2 November 1839 - 22 December 1893...Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father.*
- ANNIE JUMP CANNON 11 December 1863 - 13 April 1941... Astronomer of the Harvard Observatory, Cambridge, Massachusetts 1897 - 1941

*NOTE references to light and sun. The stones for Annie and her parents are marble carved to resemble coffin lids.