200 YEARS — BICENTENNIAL

Duck Creek Cross Roads - Smyrna, Delaware

1768 - 1968

SCHEDULE FOR JUNE 15-22, 1968

SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 8 p.m. - A Bicentennial Ball in the Armory, at which the Smyrna Bicentennial Queen will be chosen from seven local finalists. She will be crowned by Miss Delaware. Also a teen-age dance will be held in the high school gymnasium.

SUNDAY, JUNE 16, 7 p.m. - An outdoor community religious service in the high school stadium, with Donald Barnhouse, prominent Philadelphian, as guest speaker.

MONDAY, JUNE 17 - Senior Citizens Day, beginning at 11 a.m. on the grounds of the Delaware Home and Hospital. Old-fashioned recreation is planned - croquet, darts, checkers, cards, horseshoes, and an old-timers baseball game. There will be prizes for the oldest lady present, the oldest gentleman, and the oldest couple.

TUESDAY, JUNE 18 - Sports Day, starting at 10 a.m. will include such events as a Little League baseball game and swimming at Lake Como.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19 - Open House and tour of six local industrial firms, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Participating companies include W. L. Wheatley Co., Leeds Travelwear, Tyler Refrigeration Corp., General Metalcraft, General Clothing and Litton Industries.

THURSDAY, JUNE 20 - Ladies Day, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the high school. A flower show, cake decorating and flower arranging contests are scheduled.

FRIDAY, JUNE 21 - Youth day all day long, beginning with a children's parade in the morning (pets welcomed) to an evening battle of the bands and teenage dances at Smyrna's Lake Como.

SATURDAY, JUNE 22 - Grand Bicentennial Parade at 4 p.m. down Main Street, featuring bands, marching units, the Bicentennial Queen and her court, floats representing various community organizations. Also at this time the final judging of beards will take place and prizes will be awarded.

Your committee wishes to express to each and every participant in our Bicentennial Celebration, our heartfelt thanks for the untold hours of work that has been necessary to bring this event to a successful conclusion. We sincerely trust that the names listed are correct and complete, since the persons responsible for the coordination of the Episodes into final form have had to work under the most trying and unforseen circumstances.
