Dear Sir,

I write briefly to inform you that our election has terminated in the election of a Clay Representation to Congress and a majority of two thirds of each branch of the Legislature for Clay. John I. Millegan Esquire is and successful candidate for Congress. Every effort which Jacksonism could make was used to effect the election of his opponent Mr. H. M. Ridgely (the former Senator from this State), but we have given the enemy a Waterloo defeat. In the event of the next Presidential election devolving on the House of Representatives, Mr. Clay is by this election made sure of the vote of Delaware.

Very respectfully
Yr. F. Serv. S.
J. M. Clayton.
