

The index of state and city officers is very complete, as is the street and business directory. A novel and valuable improvement is the giving of the name of the citizen's wife immediately following his own. The book is handsomely printed and will be an invaluable addition to office desk or library table.

Mr. Pilchard's Successor.

The official board of Scott M. E. Church held a meeting last night and decided to lay before Presiding Elder Barrett a call to Rev. M. L. Hutton, of Dover, Minnesota, to be the pastor of the church to succeed Rev. S. N. Pilchard. Dr. Barrett agreed to grant the desire of the board and the call has been made, Bishop Warren assenting to the transfer of Mr. Hutton. He is expected to arrive here on Wednesday next and will probably preach his first sermon to-morrow week.

He is Here.

Charles A. Rosenberg is in the city with 25,000 Havana cigars which he is compelled to sell at the lowest figures at which such goods were ever offered. The sale is now going on at George Drake's auction rooms, No. 9 East Fourth street. Goods must be sold to-night regardless of price. Come and see what they are. Bring $1 and get two boxes. Dealers especially invited.

Bishop Coleman in Sussex.

Bishop Coleman will go to Delmar tonight whence he will go to Little Hill, Sussex county, to preach at St. John's Church there to-morrow morning. In the afternoon he will preach at St. Mark's, Little Creek, and at night at St. Andrew's, Ellis Grove.

Window Screens—made to order—at Harry Yergers' Picture Store, No. 419 Shipley street.

Crabs and Clams

Received daily, sold in lots to suit buyers and very low for spot cash. G. W. SPICER, No. 106 East Fourth street.

the same was done at No. 15. A delegation from the latter school decorated the Garfield monument.

At No. 21 Samuel H. Baynard, Rev. J. W. Lankford and Dr. J. W. Crumbaugh spoke. Among those present were: Miss Kate Crumbaugh, William Jones, Mrs. Ellis Jefferson, Mrs. Edward Spencer, Mrs. Lucy Graves, Mrs. John Miller and Miss Cleo Howard.

At School No. 16 owing to alterations in the building no observance was made of the day.

Memorial Day Observance.

The day was observed in an appropriate though not elaborate manner in Wilmington. Most of the city offices were closed and business at the post office shut down at 9 o'clock. The school children joined with the veterans in decorating the graves and many of the flowers were gathered by the little ones.

All the white posts joined in decorating the graves in the Wilmington and Brandywine cemetery and the children of No. 24 and No. 2 schools joined.

Thomas A. Smyth Post, No. 1, had charge of Old Swedes and Riverview cemeteries and Sheridan Post, No. 23, acted with it.

Admiral DuPont Post, No. 2, went by street cars to DuPont Cemetery and Garfield Camp, No. 2, S. of V, acted as a firing party. After the decorating there, a delegation from the post, with the firing party visited Greenhill, St. Joseph's and Mt. Salem cemeteries.

U. S. Grant Post, No. 13, cared for the graves at the old Catholic and New Cathedral cemeteries.

Charles Sumner Post, No. 4, decorated the graves of all colored soldiers in Ezion Cemetery, and also in the two burial grounds on French street, now closed. In the afternoon the post will make a street parade, followed by exercises in Ezion Cemetery.

Memorial Day Parade.

This afternoon the white posts will make a street parade. The line will Mexican Medicine Company's Blood Tonic. To-Ca. I experienced the greatest relief." Large $1 bottles 25 cents. Samples free. Office, No. 419 Market street.

A Flag for St. Mary's School.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians celebrated Memorial Day by presenting to the St. Mary's Parochial School a handsome national flag. The presentation was made this afternoon. The exercises preliminary to the presentation comprised the singing of patriotic airs by the children and speeches by members of the order.

Washington Council Anniversary.

Washington Council, O. U. A. M., celebrated the forty-ninth anniversary of its organization in its hall at Fourth and King streets, last night. Prominent members of the order throughout the state were present. A very interesting musical and historical program was rendered.

The Work Will Go On.

Now that President Cleveland has vetoed the River and Harbor bill, because of the heavy appropriations it carries, the Delaware Construction Company of Wilmington will finish the contract at Liston's Point, unless the bill be passed over the President's veto.

Jockey's Leg Broken.

Jockey Edward Zeller had his leg broken by being thrown by the mare Alauthracite, in the second race at the Barkedale race track, near Newark, yesterday. After throwing the jockey the mare ran into the fence, killing herself.

Delaware Pensioners.

Mary E. Boyce, Milford, Kent county; Charles Tribitt, Wilmington and the miners of Theodore M. Smedley, Wilmington, have been granted original pensions.

Window Screens—made to order—at Harry Yergers' Picture Store, No. 419 Shipley street.

which occurred in day.

Office Seventh and H. T. Sergeant, dealer in Large pea coal Oak or pine wood,

The W

In the Middle States day fair and moderate prevail, with fresh northerly winds, followed by snow. On Sunday, in both warmer weather will light variable winds, a part y cloudy weather ture changes.

New York Herald W storm before reported Lawrence Valley will Anticosti and Newfoundland and moderate temperature in the Central and perature in the South sively high (reaching 80 degrees at El Paso, Texas

WILMINGTON

—The Jackson and turned over five Sum mington City Railway

—For second hand fu prices go to Conway's, S

—Memorial services, in character, will be us to-morrow afternoon.

—The Standard of Maverick, recently re grounded while enteri m gton, N. C., yes floated to-day.

—For a good 15 cen Restaurant, 310 King s

—A large quantity of P., W. & B. railroad ar St. Peter's, Chester cou

—Rivermen report va tos on the Delaware ri their annual invasion

—If you wish a god to Simmons and Broth

—Presiding Elder Le will preach at Union M tomorrow morning.

—The ferryboat tea dock trial at the ship; Jones Company yeste trial was very satisfact

—Dr. Hancker, super State Hospital, says i amined John Harkins's