COMPANY B GOES TO MESS IN OLD COLLEGE

DELAWARE TODAY

Living quarters of trainees, second floor Training House, south west corner.

The Commons, with new food counter. Mess attendants and some soldiers are old Delaware men.

Marching toward Main Street past Purnell Hall.

With the Army Training Program in operation, the old campus offers new scenes to onlookers. The UNIVERSITY NEWS, in the belief that this mixture of old and new will be interesting to alumni abroad, presents these pictures of "Delaware Today."

Marching up the steps in front of Harter Hall, en route to the gym.

Cokes at Rhodes'. Many of the men shown here were at Delaware as civilians last winter.

Part of Company B on Frazer Field.
