WRITTEN BY VICTOR R ADAMS

1. Did you ever take a trip through Sussex County
2. Oh the breezes blowing through the Streets of Georgetown
3. But the strangers come and try to teach us their way.
4. Now if there's going to be a life hereafter

C

Maybe to the County Seat for Return Day
Are perfumed by the cooking of the ox
They scorn us just for going back a hundred years or more
And somehow I'm sure there's going to be

A7 07

Have you ever watched the parade at the Circle
And folks at Nutter Marvel's Carriage House talking crazy
But they might as well go chasing light beams
I will ask my GOD to let me make my Heaven

And listen to the Politicians talk all day
Speak a language that the strangers do not know
Or light a candle with a falling star
In that Dear Land called Sussex County
