Some Information concerning JOHN COLLINS of Broad Creek Hundred, Sussex Co. Del. and his Descendants.

The father of John Collins of Broad Creek Hundred, Bussex Co. was Joseph Collins who was a planter of Wordester Co. Md. His will is dated Aug. 1,1766 and was probated March 5,1767. I have not seen a copy of this will. He patented 8 tracts of land in Maryland. His widow, whose name I do not know was alive in 1781 for she is mentioned in the will of her son George Collins, Pook D. No. 4, p. 14. Sussex Co.

They had at least five children:
JOHN COLLINS, later of Broad Creek Hundred
George Collins, who died between 1781 and 1783 in Sussex Co. Del.
Hargaret, who married George Bacon and who left no children
Betty who married Samuel Sorogin, brother of the 2nd wife of
JOHN COLLINS

Sally

JOHN COLLINS was a planter in Sussex Co. Various records in the Court house show that he was a large land owner. By his first marriage - name of wife unknown he had three daughters, whose names are montioned in his will, on file in Sussex Co.

Poggy (Margaret) who married William Berry in Kentucky and left a large descent in St. Louis, Mo.

Folly Jenny

The auothiography of his only living son, Joseph Jorogin Collins states that there were six children altogether so two must have died in childhood, one probably a son. The fate of Polly and Jenny is unknown. They appear in Court records as late as 1801, but their half brother never mentioned them and nothing further is known of them.

The second wife of JOHN COLLINS was Beth Congin. She was the daughter of Joseph Gregin of Somerset Co. H. who owned property near Salisbury. He died in 1747 and his list recorded in Somerset Co. Sarah Caldwell was the daughter of January, dwell of Somerset Co. He died before 1747. He was married by 1725 to Hary ---. She was living as late as 1747. He had warrants for several tracts of land which seem never to have been patented

Joseph Corogin Collins, who was born March 17,1779 on his father's plantation; three miles north east of the town of Laurel on the south eastern branch of the Mantikoke Reversetty Scrogin Collins died when her son was about four years old. After the death of JOHN COLLINS, whose will was dated April 22,1787 and probated July 7,1787, Joseph Scrogin Collins was sent to the home of his uncle Samuel Scrogin whose wife Betty was a sister of JCHN COLLINS. The Scrogin family emigrated to Kentucky in 1794 taking Joseph Scrogin Collins with them. There he learned the trade of a printer and returning to Delaware he married 1st. Mary Brown Feb. 4,1800. She was born in 1774 and died March 15,1801 soon after the birth of her only child.

This child was John Anderton Collins, born Feb. 11, 1801, died May 7,1857. He was noted as being an eloquent preacher of the Methodist Church throughout Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, He was twice married, first to Miranda Tavener of Loudon Co. Va and by her had
