

Will Entertain Dickinson Graduates

Special to the Evening Journal.

Bridgeville, May 19.—H. P. Cannon, of this town, expects to entertain the class of 1870 of Dickinson College, at its annual reunion, at his home here on Friday, June 6. As many as possible as can be present will come in a special Pullman car over the Queen Anne's railroad from Baltimore to Greenwood, thence to Bridgeville, arriving about 11 a. m. They will remain here until about 6 p. m., and then return by the Laurel route to Baltimore. Mr. Cannon expects to royally entertain them. Senator McComos, W. H. Bosley, president of the Queen Anne's railroad; Judge Edward Biddle, of Carlisle, Pa., and Lieutenant-Governor Cannon are among the members of the class of '70.

Queen Anne's Officers Elected

Special to the Evening Journal.

Bridgeville, May 19.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Queen Anne's railroad, the following officers were elected; President, W. H. Bosley; vice-president, Dr. C. H. Tilghman; secretary, Hugh L. Pope; treasurer, Robert W. Smith; directors, Wesley M. Oler, Douglas H. Gorden, Henry C. Matthews, Frank Ellen, David Ambach, Jordan Stabler, John S. Gibbs, General John M. Denison, of Maryland; Philip L. Cannon, Dr. Hiram R. Burton, John F. Saulsbury and Landreth L. Layton, of Delaware.
