Records of Sussex (Mission) Circuit of the Methodist
Protestant Church. Sussex Co. Delaware.

1865-1902.

HISTORY.

In 1865 Revs. Isaac T. Adkins commenced preaching at the Dorothy School-House in Broad Creek Hundred Sussex County, Delaware. In 1866, as reasonably as can be ascertained in the month of August a Methodist Protestant Church was organized by Revs. J. T. Adkins and Thomas H. Burgess.

The Maryland Annual Conference had previously in March 1865, set off Millsboro Mission, and appointed J. T. Adkins pastor. In 1866 no supply, although Bros Adkins & Burgess continued to preach at Millsboro, Roger's School House and Sharp's School House, Vaughan's School House and Sharp's School House. In 1869 T. H. Burges was appointed to Millsboro Mission and the charge thereafter received regular supplies as this Register shows.

Rev. H. G. Cowan.

In 1869 the name of Millsboro Mission was changed by the Md. An. Conference to Lower Sussex Mission, and in 1872 by the same authority the title was altered to Sussex Mission. Sussex Mission was changed to a circuit by the Conference of 1890.

The origin of Providence M. P. Church.
Sussex Mission, Maryland District.

Rev. John Rogers, an Old-School Baptist Minister had a regular preaching appointment for many years at Roger's School-House, Dagsboro Hundred, Sussex County, Delaware. On his death he sent for Rev. Isaac T. Adkins of the Methodist Protestant Church and requested him to continue the work at that place after his death.

Mr. Atkins took up this appointment and organized a Methodist Protestant Church which was known as the Roger's Mission. In 1886, under the pastorate of Rev. J. E. Nicholson, a church was built at this appointment and called Providence.
