STATE OF DELAWARE.

SUSSEX COUNTY, SS.

TO James A. Carey and John C. Hazzard
Two judicious and impartial men of Sussex County, Greeting: You are hereby appointed appraisers of the Goods and Chattels of Robert H. Carey late of Dood Kieu hundred, Sussex county aforesaid, deceased. And you are by these presents authorized and required to appraise all the Goods and Chattels of said deceased, as the same shall be inventoried and exhibited, made known or shown to you by.

Susan D. Carey Administratrix of the said Robert H. Carey deceased, at the true value thereof, in lawful money of the United States, according to the best of your judgment, you having first severally taken, subscribed and certified the affidavits hereunto annexed, each administering to the other the oath or affirmation and certifying the same, or having them administered or certified by a Judge or Justice of the Peace: and when you shall have so appraised the Goods and Chattels, you are to prefix this warrant, together with your affidavits so as aforesaid regularly taken, subscribed and certified, to the said inventory and appraisement, and to date and sign with your respective hands a certificate of appraisement, in the form hereunto given; and to deliver the said inventory and appraisement, thus by you authenticated, to the said Susan D. Carey to be by her delivered into the Register's Office for Sussex County aforesaid, on or before the 9th day of March next. If there be a crop growing or begun, insert in the inventory; the same may require your advice whether same may finish it or dispose of it, and you are to certify the same upon the inventory; but in this matter you are not to act unless your advice be required as aforesaid, though you are to appraise the said crop, if put in the inventory.

WITNESS, WILLIAM A. POLK, Register of Sussex County, aforesaid, at Georgetown, this 9th day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety nine.
Chas. E. Stockley REGISTER.

(See Revised Code, Page 544.)

I James A. Carey do solemnly swear that I will appraise the goods and chattels of Robert H. Carey deceased, at the true value thereof in money, according to my best judgment; and that I will perform my duty as appraiser with fidelity.

So Help me God
Subscribed and sworn this 14th day of Nov. 1891 before me the other appraiser.
