

st set ecital

Mezzo-soprano
Thompson will present a 2 p.m. Sunday at Jury Club on The

1986 winner of the Music Teachers
Competition and so-
coming "Messiah"
are Symphony, will selections, includ-
Rossini, Chausson,
Barber.

s free and open to
ception will follow.
nation, call 697-

Margaret Thompson

port networks strong families

VAN HORN

d families suffer
and losses. Some
from the crisis
d feeling stronger.
erience even
m to be almost de-

ne difference in family handles a

I would guess that hardly a person felt very much alone. They had a support network.

But in today's world, many families live far from any relative, and family reunions are simply not possible, at least on a regular basis.

Four families, all with children, recognized this deficiency and did something about it. Each month they gather in one family's home

Teachers elect leader

DOVER — Robert A. Young of Lincoln was elected president of the Delaware Retired Teachers Association during the 30th an-

Return Day winners

GEORGETOWN — Winners of ribbons in various categories of competition for the Return Day parade on Nov. 6 have been listed by the parade committee.

Prizes were awarded as follows:

First, attitude and atmosphere — Stockley Center Boy Scout Troop 115.

First, best illustration of Return Day — Sussex County Republican Committee float.

First, best overall appearance — Sussex Central Junior High Band.

First, illustration of fellowship and good will — Sussex Central Pop Warner Football float.

Adult (single participant) — Marvin Shel-house, first; Ethel Rockeman, second; Toby Atkins, third.

Child (single participant) — Kristi Stuart, first; Ryan Stuart, second; Grand Marshal John Purnell and granddaughter, third.

Adult (group) — Delaware Heritage group (Howard Rowe, Jack Bassett, Sam Beard), first; Debbie Wilson and Rusty Warrington, second; American Rifles, third.

Youth (group) — Pop Warner Pee Wee cheerleaders, first; Sallie Beth Johnson and Jill Townsend, second; Lewes Junior High School Band, third.

Best marching group (adult) — Delaware State Band, first; American Rifles, second; Delaware State Police color guard, third.

Best marching group (youth) — Cape Henlo-pen High School Band, first; Seaford High School Band, second; Pathfinders, third.

Horse riders — Nanticoke Bird Hunters Club, first; Donald Craft, second; Ingrid Beacroft (Rainbow's End), third.

Horse-drawn vehicle — Bill and Jane Roth (carriage owned by Ed Evans), first; Jay Pretty-man (carriage with Welsh pony), second; Grand Marshal (carriage owned by Nutter Marvel),
third.

Best commercial float — Hudson Management, first; WDSO, second; Frank Perdue chicken, third.

Best non-commercial float — Henlopen Ruritan, first; Department of Corrections shooting team, second; DelTech Industrial, third.

Best miscellaneous — Bridgeville Fire Company burning house float, first; Bill Carmine and three antique tractors, second; Trooper Dan,
third.

News Journal
DELMARVA CROSSROADS

Nov. 1

Hot d by Pl

GEORGETOWN —
sum Point Playe
Tennessee Willi
Hot Tin Roof" t
the DelTech Th
18.

Members of the
McGowan as Ma
Rados as Brick,
Daddy Pollitt, a
as Big Mama. O include Marilyn Greg Weer as G
more as Rev. To
as Dr. Baugh, D
and Judy Norwo
younger member
ton, Robin Ertha Brandi Howell a son.

Performances
Friday and Satu
Sunday. Tickets
count available t
and full-time stu
day matinee. Fo 945-0417.

$99.31/Mo

or