

REMEMBER WHEN. . .
A Hundred Years of Pictorial History
of
Georgetown, Delaware

Dedicated to the Memory of Mary Houston Robinson

1893-1984

"Georgetown's Militant Lady Editor"

DELAWARE PUBLIC ARCHIVES

Alias Ben Franklin (far left) helps Doris Short and Norma Lee Copsey out of the antique truck owned by Harold N. Short. At right, then mayor Steve Pepper and Rosalie Walls arrived on the Circle by carriage. The gentleman in center holding the horses is unidentified.

The Courthouse on the Circle stands in a winter wonderland on Christmas Eve Day 1998.

In 1996, the county added on to the old Post Office (center) on the Circle to make a new county administrative building.

The Old Courthouse has been restored and now stands on South Bedford Street.