The newly organized library of the Georgetown Presbyterian Church was open for the first time yesterday after morning worship.

The library will be housed temporarily in the study of the Rev. Bernard M. Taylor, pastor.

The committee in charge is requesting more books. They now have 140 as a start.

However, attention was called to the fact it is a religious library which the church is building up.

"We are not trying to duplicate the town or school library", Mrs. Taylor, the chairman, remarked.

Other members of the library committee are Dr. Russell A. Plumptre, Mrs. Paul Pusey, Mrs. Robert MaGinley, and Mrs. Plumptre as librarian.
