Biographical Note: Neal Joseph Boyle (1924 – 2020) was born in Dorchester, Massachusetts, to Neal Patrick and Beatrice Theresa Boyle. After graduating from high school in 1942, Boyle served in World War II in the U.S. Coast Guard as an areologist dispensing valuable weather data. After the war, Boyle graduated from Georgetown University SFS in 1951. When he retired, Boyle had been serving as Vice President and CFO of the American Red Cross. Before that, Boyle served as Sr. Vice President at GEICO and was the Chairman of the Finance Commission of the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies in Geneva, Switzerland. He was a past President of the Washington, D.C. Chapter of the Financial Executives Institute. Boyle was a former St. Jude's Apostle Finance Committee member in Lewes. Boyle was married to Tilda R. Boyle, who died before him, for 56 years. He was married to Jane A. Hood for ten years after Tilda's death. Neal Joseph Boyle was an avid collector of paper ephemera, specializing in postcards.
